Pursuant to a call of the Town Council, a citizens' meeting was held in the Court House on Tuesday night to consider the advisability of the town purchasing a chemical fire-extinguishing apparatus, consisting of one engine, two small extinguishers, with hose, ladders, axes, buckets, and offered for $1,600. The meeting was slimly attended, and very few persons present expressed any opinion one way or the other, but those who did express their opinions thought the outlay would be too great for the advantages secured in the way of increased facilities for protection of property against destruction by fire, and the meeting adjourned without taking any decided action, but from what was said the Council understood that the purchasing of the apparatus was not favored.

After the rain of last Thursday morning, with which a small amount of snow was mingled, the weather grew gradually colder until Sunday night, when it was evident that all vegetation susceptible to injury by frost would be killed, and on Monday morning there was hardly a vestige left. Such garden vegetables as beans, Irish potatoes, cabbage plants, etc., and fruits of every kind that were in bloom were almost entirely destroyed, while a few patches of very forward small grain were slightly injured. The destruction of the fruit crop is pretty general all over the County, though mingled, the weather grew gradually colder

Mrs. Annie M. Sloan died suddenly on Sunday evening last at the residence of her husband, Maj. Benjamin Sloan, at Walhalla. Mrs. Sloan was a daughter of the late Capt. John Maxwell, and was a highly accomplished and estimable lady, whose amiable disposition and many noble attributes of character conspired to render her an ornament to society, beloved and admired by those who surrounded or were acquainted with her. To a beautifully modest and retiring nature she added the higher charm of a perfect sincerity and the race of a true woman. A devoted wife, a fond and affectionate mother, and a loving friend, she yet possessed the higher and more enduring virtue of a deep piety and abiding faith in Him whose ways are above our ways and in whose counsels there are The Democrats of Abbeville and Greenno mistakes. Though her remains sleep the long sleep in the Baptist Church Cemetery at Pendleton, beside loved ones who had gone before her, yet she leaves a memory that will often come to comfort with sweet pleasure the anguished relatives and Atlantic & French Broad Valley Railroad, friends who mourn the early death of one so pure and beautiful and good.

Gen. Humphreys then introduced the ollowing preamble and resolutions : Whereas, by a Joint Resolution of the General Assembly of South Carolina, ap-proved February 20, 1880, the President and Board of Directors of the Savannah Valley Mr. Joseph Skelton, a young man not quite 19 years of age, died at his father's Railroad, or a majority of them, are au-thorized and empowered to direct the colresidence, in Anderson County, on the 25th March. His illness had been for nearly a year a gradual wasting of physical strength by some form of dyspepsia, until that strength was exhausted. Yet, his mental cient to grade said Road, with hired or convict labor. Therefore,
Resolved, That the collection of the first instalment of said subscription be proceeded with forthwith, commencing on the first day of May now next ensuing, and continclose of his life that interest took the shape of a confident, a hopeful anticipation of a better life. He calmly and peacefully contemplated the prospect before him as one uing until the 31st of October next, without the imposition of the usual penalty for non-payment if paid on or by the said 31st of October next. hopefully contemplates the scenes of the Resolved, That the Auditors of the Counties of Anderson and Abbeville, and the Town Treasurer of the Town of Anderson land to which he is to emigrate. His relatives could scarcely have wished to detain him, and the grief of a tender mother was quieted with the belief that his departure was his gain. The death of Mr. Skelton has left a deep impression upon the young people of his community, some of whom, as well as those of his own family, he tenhim, and the grief of a tender mother was as well as those of his own family, he tenas aforesaid, are authorized to turn over to the County Treasurer of their respective Counties the books containing said assess-ment, so soon as the same is made and completed, to wit, on or by the first day of a voice from the borders of the world to ber, taking his stand on the brink of time to address them. Let them not forget that May ensuing.

Resolved, That the County Treasurers of Anderson and Abbeville, and the Town Treasurer of the Town of Anderson, are authorized to collect the said first instalment of the subscription to the Savannah Valley Railroad, as provided in the charter of said company, commencing as herein provided on the 1st day of May and continuing until the 1st of October next; and in collecting said taxes the County Treasures as the case may the Baptist Convention of this State, urer, or Town Treasurer, as the case may be, shall deliver to the taxpayer a special receipt therefore, which shall express that the amount stated therein is the tax for said Rrailroad.

Pesolved, That a corps of engineers, be organized at once, and authorized to proceed with the survey of said Road so soon as funds sufficient have been paid in to defray the expenses of said survey. He thought a sufficient amount of money could be raised by the means designated to secure a survey of the route, and to employ a sufficient number of hired laborers to commence the work as soon as crops are laid by. If the Company meant business it was time something was being done, and if work was delayed much longer the enterprise might as well be abandoned. Col. J. W. Norris thought the Board ought to be very careful in taking action on he matter of collecting taxes, and was op posed to the collection being made this year. since January, 1877, and has endeared himself to the membership of his Church, who He did not think it would do to commence the work of grading the road bed with bired labor, and preferred to defer the collection of taxes until next year. vigorous and untiring worker for whatever

Capt. J. T. Barnes favored the resolutions. and thought work should be commenced as early as possible, as it had already been delayed too long. He was prepared to vote ficient to complete the grading of the road bed. He hoped the resolutions would pass.

Gen. Humphreys considered that a great deal depended on the action of the Board at this meeting, and expressed the opinion that in less than three months from the day work was commenced on this Road steps would be taken to extend the line from Anderson to Easley, making connection at the latter place with the Atlantic & French Broad Valley Railroad. He thought the resolutions should be adopted, that the survey should be arranged for at once, and as soon as practicable the work of grading the road bed should be commenced.

Mr. R. P. Clinkscales favored the resolutions, and thought it important that as little time be lost in commencing the work of grading as possible. Dr. W. J. Milford stated that he would vote for the resolutions because he represented Hall township, and he knew that a majority of the citizens of that township were in favor of going ahead with the enterprise. He was willing to grade five miles of the route himself rather than have the enterprise fail.

Mr. S. J. Hester said that he promised his neighbors before he left home that he would bring the Road back with him, and hoped sincerely that the resolutions would

Col. Norris moved to amend the 4th resolution so as to require the surveyors to make an estimate of the cost of both a narrow and broad gauge road. He favored making the road a narrow gauge, and spoke at some length upon the relative merits of the narrow and broad gauge roads.

Mr. S. J. Hester wanted a broad gauge road, as all of the roads with which it was to connect were broad gauge.

The amendment was adopted. On motion of Capt. Barnes, the resolu-

ions were adopted as a whole. Maj. T. B. Lee was then introduced to the Board, and stated that the preliminary survey of the entire route could be made at | lin at 10c. a cost of about $500, and that it would consume about one month of time. He stated at some length the relative advantages of the narrow and broad gauge roads, and thought that a narrow gauge would answer the purposes of the proposed line. He favored going to work at once.

On motion of Gen. Humphreys, the Pres ident was instructed to invite estimates from engineers of the cost of a survey of the entire route, and that the Board meet at Carswell Institute on Saturday, 8th of May, at 12 o'clock, to consider the bids.

The Secretary of the Board was ordered to serve a copy of the resolutions upon the Auditors of Abbeville and Anderson Countil.

The Board then adjourned.
